

I am writing to you in opposition to the Consumer Bankers Association's effort to weaken Indiana's telephone privacy law. I do not wish to receive unwanted phone calls from the banks which hold my accounts, credit or otherwise. It is hard enough for me to accomplish everything that I need to each day as a mother of three toddlers without having to screen numerous unwanted telephone solicitations. Thank you so much for denying the CBA's challenge.

Sincerely,

Greta Ehlers